

New York-Cambridge Teaching Collaboration at NACBS (Nov 14-16, Vancouver)

NYCTC members scheduled to appear on panels/roundtables are as follows:

Day 1 (Friday 14th November):

Session Two (10:30-12:00):

14. 'Urban History and the Twentieth Century', Oceanview 2

- Chair: Judith Walkowitz, Johns Hopkins University
- Sarah Mass, Sam Houston State University, *Urban History and Citizenship
- Guy Ortolano, New York University, *Urban History and Social Democracy
- Sam Wetherell, University of York, *Urban History and Neoliberalism

Commentator: David Morton, University of British Columbia

Session Three (1:45-3:15):

21. 'Bodies and Spirits at the Century's Turn', Oceanview 1

- Chair and commentator: Joy Dixon, University of British Columbia
- George Morris, Cambridge University, "Sometimes I can really be my mother": *Body, Spirit and intimacy in the mediumship of Rosina Thompson, 1898-1903
- Susan Pedersen, Columbia University, *Balfours Play God: Sex and Psychological Research in the Shadow of the Great War
- Sarah Cole, Columbia University, *Bodies, Souls, Collectives: H.G. Wells Thinking the Future

Day 2 (Saturday 15th November)

Session 5 (8:45-10:15):

37. 'Rethinking Regulatory Institutions in the History of Gender and Sexuality', Oceanview 1

- Chair and commentator: Sharon Marcus, Columbia University
- Emily Rutherford, Columbia University, *Conservative Homosexualities and Normative Masculinities in Early-Twentieth-Century Cambridge
- Laura Quinton, New York University, *Men in Tights: Ballet, "Obscene" Masculinity and National Culture at the Postwar Royal Opera House
- Adrian Kane, University of Washington, *Documenting "Doubtful Sex" in the Postwar National Insurance System, 1954-1969

Session 7 (1:45-3:15):

50. 'Risk and Protection in Britain and the Empire, 1890-1990', Pacific Rim Suite 2

- Chair: Timothy Alborn, Lehman College, City University of New York
- Ellen Boucher, Amherst College, "A Good Tent May Make All the Difference of Living or Dying": *Missionary Travel and the Management of Risk
- Penny Sinanoglou, Wake Forest University, *Child Brides and Imperial Stability: Languages of Risk in the Debate over the Age of Consent and Child Marriage, 1890-1930
- Andrew Seaton, New York University, *The Limits to Free Market Medicine

- Commentator: Hilary Buxton, Institute of Historical Research

55. 'Does Biography Matter?' (Roundtable), Oceanview 3

- Chair: Peter Mandler, Cambridge University
- Participants: Laura Beers, American University, Fred Leventhal, Boston University, and Peter Stansky, Stanford University

Session 8 (3:30-5:00):

62. 'Imperial Networks of Scientific Knowledge and the State', Oceanview 3

- Chair: Susan Pedersen, Columbia University
- Ian Kumekawa, Harvard University, Imperial Seeds and British Forests: The Imperial Origins of the British Forest Policy
- Gili Kliger, Harvard University, Missionary Imperialism and the Secular State
- Osama Siddiqui, Cornell University, Reading John Stuart Mill in Colonial India