

From Dissertation

to BOOK

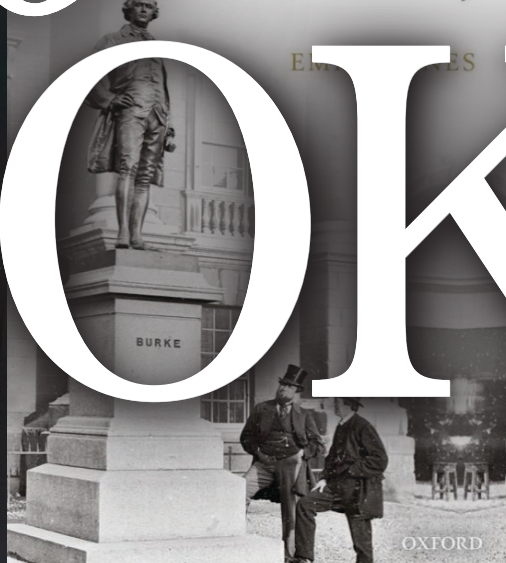

OXFORD
Class, Politics,
and the Decline of
Deference in England,
1968–2000
Florence Sutcliffe-Braithwaite

OXFORD
EDMUND BURKE & THE
INVENTION OF MODERN
CONSERVATISM, 1830–1914
An Intellectual History

OXFORD
The War Inside

Psychoanalysis, Total War, and the Making of the Democratic Self in Postwar Britain

MICHAL SHAPIRA

Tips and Tricks, Dos and Don'ts

A ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION

Wednesday MARCH 18 11:00am–1:00pm

All are welcome; no reservations required.

PARTICIPANTS

Chair: GUY ORTOLANO, New York University

HANNAH FARBER, Columbia University, and the author of Underwriters of the United States, Omohundro Institute of Early American History and Culture & UNC Press, under contract

SUSAN FERBER, Executive Editor, Oxford University Press

PETER MANDLER, Cambridge University, and Co-editor of the “Modern British Histories” book series at Cambridge University Press

SAM WETHERELL, York University, and author of Foundations: How the Built Environment Made Twentieth-Century Britain, Princeton University Press, forthcoming

Ground Floor Auditorium

KING JUAN CARLOS I BUILDING, NEW YORK UNIVERSITY
53 WASHINGTON SQUARE SOUTH

SPONSORED BY: the New York-Cambridge Training Collaboration (NYCTC) in modern British history.

WITH THANKS TO:

NYU's Department of History and Global Research Initiative; the Faculty of History at Cambridge University; and the Faculty of Arts and Sciences at Columbia University.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY